

31st July 2017

2017 ACEL Early Childhood Conference

ACEL is thrilled to be working with the Queensland Government to provide early childhood leaders with an opportunity to engage in the 2017 National Early Childhood Conference to be held at the Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre on August 2nd and 3rd. This conference reflects the commitment ACEL has made to support leaders within the early childhood sector.

This conference will acknowledge the importance of early childhood and the quality of the leaders in this sector throughout the 2 day conference. The delegates will participate in keynotes sessions with international leaders in early childhood (Michael McAfee, Deitre Epps, Nathan Wallis, Mem Fox and James Nottingham) as well as national leaders in the sector.

Aasha Murthy, CEO of ACEL, states that “ACEL understands that quality early childhood education and care and the development of exceptional leaders, is key to future success. Our support of the leaders in the sector is one I feel passionately about.”

Limited spaces left, to register visit www.ancel.org.au

The Australian Council for Educational Leaders (ACEL) gives access to world- class empirical research along with the practical support to achieve excellence in leadership in the education sector.

Visit www.ancel.org.au